Interpretation of Each Point

VARNA

The boy's varan is Brahmin and the girl is associated with Vaishya varan. The boy's emotional attitude will get him the genuine interest of the girl. Nonetheless, she will be comparatively more rational and practical in her approach towards the life. Although she would be quite interested in the domestic affairs. The natives will have good level of understanding and it would help them to carry out general endeavors smoothly. They will praise one another's efforts for lifting up the family status and conserving family values. This can be regarded as a decent combination that matches well as far as varna gunas are concerned.

VASYA

Vashya for boy is Jalchar while the girl belongs to Chatushpad vashya. Boy's support and appreciation will bring out the best of her in every field whereas girl's corporation will give him regard and success in his field. This is indicative of over-all favorable results in respect of matters pertaining to married life in general, and good harmony in married life is assured. The chart shows compatibility in respect of outlook and objective, intellectual level and spiritual plane. The pair has an excellent temperamental adjustment. This is suitable match for a coalition as far as vashya guna is concerned

TARA

Tara for boy is Mitra and for girl is Pratyari tara. As far as tara compatibility shows it is a very compatible match. The boy's behavior will be very much accommodating and he will turnout firm in the midst of adversities. The boy can help the girl to be more courageous and energetic in implementing plans, goals and in over coming fear and negativity. The boy will also help the girl to fill in some of the practical details in his broad philosophical outlines. A compatible match, but still overall compatibility has to be there.

YONI

The boy belongs to Gow yoni and the girl belongs to Sarp yoni. . This combination has been regarded well by the sages. Neither of them tries to control or change the other and provide enough emotional space to each other. A sense of respect and honor toward each other will become the monument of this relationship. They can sit across the negotiation table and ward off any problem which could hamper the relationship. They don't loose their heart in the midst of adverse situation. Physically, they are very attractive to each other.

MAITRI

The boy comes under the rasi lord Jupiter and the girl belongs to Venus lordship. This is not a very favorable merge as the compatibility chart shows chances of ego clash and occasional quarrels. Both are animals of different mental plane and both will think themselves wiser than the partner. There may be ups and down in their family lives because of the difference in their practical approach. They don't know the secrets for keeping the relationship fresh and the romance new. Since, they are not very free to their partners they don't feel secure in each other's company. However, if other gunas are matched well then there is no harm to go for this alliance.

GANA

The boy belongs to Manushya gan and the girl belongs to Dev gan. This is generally a good match. They will understand each other and contribute to each other's success. Girl will be devout, self-sacrificing and very supportive. The boy will be friendly however sometimes he can take angry stance which will be handled well by the girl with her calm and intelligent approach. They will be religious and charitable. The girl will motivate boy to lead more intellectual and religious life and will be his motivator, friend and philosopher. The boy will be very supportive and help the girl to express her knowledge and skills in effective and meaningful ways.

BHAKOOT

The boy's Zodiac sign is Meena and the girl belongs to Vrishbha sign. As far as sign Gunas are concerned, it is a very encouraging union. The individuals find each other stimulating and encourage each other's self-confidence. The girl will treat her husband with love and respect and the boy in turn will treat her with proper care. The relationship will experience positive changes. The relationship permits happiness, mutual sharing and harmonious relationship at home. Overall, a good merge.

NADI

The boy and the girl both come under Madhya nadi. This is not a preferred alliance according to nadi compatibility. If the wedding takes place, there is the danger of continued illness to one or both of the natives. It will be very difficult for them to adjust according to the living style, moods and feelings of the other. Sometimes they may sense that their thinking is not only different, but polar opposite with each other. Lack of trust in other might make their relationship difficult too.
